

The Foundation for
Trust • Teamwork • Culture

Unlocking human potential through Servant Teamwork

Jim Rembach
Speaker, Writer

A new millennium requires a new leadership model. One that accounts for the fact many middle management layers are gone and that every employee must take responsibility for organizational success. One that teaches EVERYONE to work together to improve leadership and employee engagement and create a POP Culture. A culture that creates a focus on PURPOSE, then the needs of OTHERS, and then looks to fulfill PERSONAL needs.

Advancing on the Servant Leadership Model created by Robert Greenleaf in the mid-twentieth century and made publicly popular by such authors as Stephen Covey, Ken Blanchard, and Spencer Johnson, Servant Teamwork is for the modern workplace. Do you want improved trust, teamwork, and a values-based culture? Servant Teamwork is a must-have.

Workshops

Teach your teams and leaders about Servant Teamwork and how to get the most of their work and personal lives.

Programs

Culture, trust, teamwork, and intrinsic motivation improve with our easy to use experiential and transformational system.

Executive Coaching

Executives get a hands on experience on how to implement behaviors and habits that will allow for greater attainment of organizational goals.

Speaking

Bring Jim to your organizations next event or meeting. Topics include: Generation Gaps, Engagement, Trust, Leadership, Accountability, Well-being

