Keynotes

Real, relevant and right on! Jim’s audiences walk away with things they can do today. They’ll take a leap forward with their emotional intelligence and customer-centricity and learn things that are guaranteed to help them get over their humps.

Coaching

Our coaching aligns with strategic customer-centric imperatives and initiatives to ensure successful outcomes. Our coaches have a proven track record working with business leaders to deliver real business results.
A measure and a solution! You no longer have the problem of what to do with the results. Staff will take ownership and manage improving their own morale and employee engagement. It transforms your company from the inside out, rather than from the top down.

The EQ-i 2.0 Group Report provides a lens through which to interpret emotional intelligence (EQ) results in a team or group setting. Get individual feedback using the Workplace or Leadership reports. Measure to Improve EQ now.

Leverage Emotional Intelligence to help you gain significantly deeper insight and understanding of your customer journey and personas. Our Empathy Mapping workshops cultivate collaboration by using gamification and human-centered design activities.
